

Position Title: Music Instructor

Job Description:

Lucci Music is an expanding local business in Colorado Springs looking for professional musicians.

Instructors must have a heart to teach, aspiration to mentor, and desire to have a vision of success for each student. Instructors must be excellent communicators and comfortable teaching students, ages seven and up. We are looking for teachers who will have a strong commitment to the growth of this company, and desire to collaborate with teaching methods to see our entire team of teachers grow together.

Qualifications:

1. Bachelors of Music Degree, currently seeking, or accreditation from other qualified sources
2. Experienced in professional live performance
3. Some prior experience of teaching required (group, class, clinics, or private lessons)
4. Advanced knowledge in music theory and diverse musical styles
5. Knowledge about the instrument being taught (e.g. part names, how to clean/maintain, tuning, basic repair, name brands, models, accessories)
6. Ability to record lesson information and weekly practice schedule to manuscript paper
7. Organized and able to maintain a weekly log of student progress and accomplishments
8. Understanding of advanced techniques and useful practice exercises
9. Time management (starting and ending lessons on time, punctuality)
10. Understand how to encourage and support students, while also understanding when and how to discipline students with a lack of practice, or who are rambunctious
11. Willing to make a personal rapport with the students and/or their parents
12. Prior studio experience a plus
